Commissioner Nelson advocated for a female offender program, and stated that St. Louis County does not have a proportionate voice on the ARC board (3 of 8 votes), given its greater contribution. Commissioner Jewell, also chair of the ARC board, spoke in support of the ARC’s work and the proposed budget. 2) The 2020 Budget and Property Tax Levy, amounting to $407 million, passed unanimously. The board also went on to discuss the 2019 transfer of shoreline lease sale proceeds from the Land Department to the Environmental Trust Fund/Shoreline Sales fund, minus reimbursement costs AND to approve “2020 St. Louis County Legislative Priorities.”

The Human Resources Director requested a closed session of the Committee of the Whole for labor negotiation purposes. It was requested that the County Board convene a closed session at the conclusion of the December 17 Committee of the Whole meeting.

The vote was 4 to 3, with Commissioners Jugovich, McDonald, Nelson and Musolf voting in favor of tabling and Commissioners Jewell, Olson, and Boyle voting against the motion to table the resolution.
